

Ambit Holdings wins "Good Corporate Citizen Awards 2013-14"

Key initiatives by Ambit Oditi Foundation in spotlight

Mumbai, 4 December, 2014: Ambit Holdings Private Limited received the "Good Corporate Citizen Awards 2013-14" from the Bombay Chamber of Commerce and Industry, under the small and micro corporate category. This award was on the basis of work done by Ambit towards various social causes and contributions made to the community at large, namely the Ambit Oditi Foundation.

Some of the key initiatives by Ambit Oditi Foundation include:

- Funding of Ambit support staff (including the IT team, security personnel, housekeeping and others). This includes school fees reimbursements for over 30 children, some having moved to English medium for better education.
- Vocational training for the spouses of the support staff. Ambit Oditi Foundation covers medical expenses of all the staff, even reimbursing some expensive procedures and operations. Computers are donated to staff members with children above the age of 6.

Other projects include classrooms constructed in a rural school at Nadsur, sponsoring the education of girls through "Nanhi Kali" and the Ambit Oditi Scholarship for underprivileged students from Magic Bus and Nanhi Kali.

About Ambit Holdings:

Ambit is a full-services Investment Bank, with services like Investment Banking, Private Equity, Asset Management, Wealth Management, Institutional Equities and Private client services. It is one of the premier "home grown" standalone financial firms in the market offering seamless service across the advisory spectrum. ike Investment Banking, Private Equity, Asset Management, Wealth Management, Institutional Equities and Private client services. It is one of the premier "home grown" standalone financial firms in the market offering seamless service across the advisory spectrum.